ADMITTED TO PRACTICE
IN FEDERAL COURT
Tuesday Adrian Pool and S. B. Ware, El Paso attorneys, were admitted to practice in the United States federal court, the usual oath of fealty to the constitution of the United States being administered by deputy clerk Geo.

B. Oliver.
O. T. Simon, formerly of El Paso, but now of Fort Worth, Tex., is in the city for a few days and is stopping at the Zeiger.

DINNERS AND PARTIES.

Chaire Woolridge recently entertained ten of her small friends in celebration of her fifth birthday anniversary. A number of interesting games made the afternoon pass merrily, and refreshments of ices and cakes were much enjoyed by the little guests.

Mrs. Frank Coles very charmingly entertained this afternoon at bridge complimentary to Mrs. Christopher Fewel.

Miss Anna Shelton will entertain with a miscellaneous shower on Saturday in honor of Miss Josie Marr, who will be one of the brides of next month.

Mrs. James Hunter Le Noir will entertain with a tea tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock in honor of Miss Bertha Stanhope.

The Misses Canella, of 527 West main street, entertained a number of their friends at 6 o'clock dinner Sunday, in farewell honor of Mr. Ewell R. Lee, who leaves Saturday, Oct. 15, for Ft. Smith, Ark., where he will be married to Miss Pearl Reid of that city, Oct. 20. Mr. and Mrs. Lee will return to this city about Nov. 15, where they will be at home to their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. David Schwarz, of 813 Dallas street, entertained Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Stephenson, of Dallas, Texas, with a 6 o'clock five-course dinner.

The dining room was beautifully and artistically decorated in white and green. The chandelier was draped in white crepe paper extending to several parts of the plate rail; and also extending from the chandelier and hanging over the center of the handsome table was a large bridal bell. The place cards were very prettily hand decorated.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson are here on their bridal trip. Mr. Stephenson is superintendent of agencies of the Southland Life Insurance company of Dallas, Texas, with a branch office here, of which Dr. D. Schwartz is agency director.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. J. McCarthy, Miss June P. Riggs, Miss Gladys Schwarz, Miss Johanna Schwarz, Ben Jacks of St. Louis, Mo., and the host and hostess.

AT HOMES.

Mrs. J. E. Townsend and Mrs. George R. LeBaron will be at home to their friends on Thursdays of each week at the residence of Mrs. LeBaron, 1226 East Boulevard.

Mrs. W. S. Tilton is permanently located at the Brazos apartment No. 11.

Mrs. F. L. Daniel will entertain with a reception on Monday afternoon at her home, in honor of Miss Mabel Head.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Kerr have moved to 915 Lee street and have as their guests Mrs. Kerr's sister, Miss Frances Gillespie, and her mother, Mrs. J. M. Gillespie, of San Antonio.

Your hair, properly arranged, is a frame and a finish to your face. Let us dress your hair for you just once. The Elite Parlor, 6-7 Stevens building.

A MAN'S PRAYER

From Waltman Barbe's "Ashes and Incense."

I ask not
When shall the day be done, and rest come on?
I pray not
That soon from me the "curse of toil" be gone;
I seek not
A sluggard's couch with drowsy curtains drawn.
But give me
Time to fight the battle out as best I may;
And give me
Strength and place to labor still at evening's gray;
Then let me
Sleep as one who toiled afield through all the day.
—From Waltman Barbe's "Ashes and Incense."

WEDDINGS.

Saturday at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Hodge, 518 Federal street, Earl L. Carlton and Miss Hazel Houser were quietly married by Rev. Robert Bruce Smith.

The bride, who is from Nebraska, was met here by the groom, and they will go to their future home in Douglas, Ariz.

A wedding of interest to El Pasoans was that of Robert Allen Boas and Miss Marguerite Chase, which occurred at Farmington, Conn., on Oct. 9. The bride, who is a most charming young woman, visited El Paso last winter in company with Mr. Boas' mother, and made a number of friends.

The wedding was celebrated at the country place of the bride's parents and was a most elaborate affair.

Mr. Boas has lived in El Paso the last year and is connected with the Phelps-Dodge interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Boas will be at home in El Paso after November 1 at their recently purchased home, 1195 Rio Grande street.

On Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the parsonage of the First Baptist church, a very pretty wedding was solemnized, when Miss Clara Baird and Elmer D. Ellis were united in marriage by Rev. Robert Bruce Smith.

A large company of friends and relatives were in attendance at the ceremony. The bride was handsomely gowned in a tailored suit of brown cloth, with hat and accessories in harmonizing tones.

The groom is connected with the T. & P. railroad, and has lived in this city several years. The bride is the attractive daughter of Dr. W. T. Baird, is well known here and has many friends.

A delightful social happening of the week was the miscellaneous shower and reception given Saturday evening by Miss Frances Carr, complimentary to Miss Nellie O'Boyle, whose marriage to Joseph Gemoets takes place on October 19.

Miss Carr was assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by her mother, Mrs. Frank Carr.

The house was attractively decorated throughout with quantities of palms, ferns and evergreens, relieved with pink and white blossoms, which gave a touch of beautiful color.

A large gift basket, placed near the door, and presided over by little Edith Maloney, held the beautiful gifts for the young bride-elect. The honor guest, Miss Nellie O'Boyle, and Miss Frances Carr received the guests at the parlor door. A string orchestra played many popular airs and added much to the pleasure of the evening. The table, from which the delicious refreshments were served, was quaintly decorated with a large loaf of bread as a centerpiece, from which shone numbers of small electric lights. Surrounding this was a garland of flowers and evergreens, and tiny loaves of bread were given as favors.

The married women who assisted the hostess in receiving were: Mesdames J. D. Ponder, Richard Caples, M. P. Maloney, Joe Caples, Jack Hughes, Thomas Kelly, Truesdell, J. F. Waddell, T. Sullivan, J. Williams, George Wade, Ammonette, P. O'Meara, Meutman, Depew, McSweeney, Andrews, T. A. Geoman, McGinnis, Knott, M. R. Dinan, Thomas Cassidy, Carter, and Misses Helen and Lavinia German.

Those in attendance were: Mesdames Maloney, Truesdell, Waddell, Wald, McGinnis, German, Andrews, Krause, Ponder, Ammonette, Williams, Kelley, J. A. Caples, Dinan, Depew, Sullivan, Cassidy, Carter, O'Meara, Behr, Klein, Spelman, Meutman, Larrabee, Hughes, Misses Florence Maloney, Lavinia German, Helen German, Louise Dreher, Amelia Spencer, Susan Evans, Katherine Cotant, Marguerite Ranken, Ethel Lewis, Stella Collard, Mabel Harrison, Annie Grady, Annie Grady, Dora Grady, Lydia Shubert, Dorothy Phinan, Lucille Maloney, Edith Maloney, Dona Truesdell, Katherine McGinnis, Marguerite McGinnis, Florence Klein, Bertha Hales, Imogene Robertson, Frances McSweeney, Marguerite Caples, Dixie Fessett, May Condon, Maggie Morrison, Genevieve Morrison, Teresa Morrison, Naughtie Miller, Ellie Burns, Genevieve O'Meara, Marguerite O'Meara, Frances Cassidy, Carlolina Daley, Maggie Carter, Mary Andrews, Isabelle Spelman, Marie Spelman; Messrs. Harry Carr, Joe Gemoets, John Andrews, John Bentley, Andrew Noone, C. P. Chamberlain, H. L. Red, George Arnold, Bob Aylsworth, Albert Beavers, F. Hogarth, F. Cayle, Jack Hughes, Edmund Behr, Clifford, Joe Caples, Cotant, Hugo Breish, Harley Kiefer, Charles Kiefer, Larrabee.

GOT A COLD?

There are lots of colds in El Paso, just now. It's so warm in the daytime and turns so cool at night. There's only one thing to do when you've got a cold, and that is—cure it. White's Cold Tablets cure a cold quickly. If your cold is accompanied by a troublesome cough, you will find White's White Pine and Tar soothing. These two remedies are our own prescriptions. They should be in every El Paso home. Prescribed only by Scott White & Co., Prescription Druggists, 204 Mills street.

CARDS.

Miss Essie Darbyshire was the charming hostess on Saturday afternoon at the third of a series of bridge parties given during the month. Mrs. L. H. Tucker won the first prize—a handsome pair of gold beauty pins. The dainty two course refreshments were served from the small tables. Those in attendance were: Mesdames R. M. Williams, J. W. Lorentzen, L. H. Tucker, Roland Gilchrist, E. H. Yalc; Misses Kate Adams, Rebecca Mack, Fannie B. Smith, Louise Sanburn, Christa Hogarth, Constance Pateman, Clair Reese Coleman, Gertrude Yalc, Ethel Brown, Elsie Lurkins, Lucille Smith.

The meeting of the Wednesday Bridge club, which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Julius Krawner, has been postponed until next Wednesday, when Miss Mabel Falvey will be the hostess.

Miss Ethel Brown will be the next hostess for the Girls Thursday Bridge club.

Mrs. L. H. Tucker will entertain on Saturday afternoon at bridge. Mrs. Frederick Turner entertained at cards Tuesday afternoon at her home at Port Bliss in honor of Mrs. Thomas M. Corcoran, wife of Capt. Corcoran, of the 13th cavalry, and Mrs. W. J. Glasgow, wife of Capt. Glasgow, also of the 13th cavalry, who are spending the winter in El Paso. The prize was won by Mrs. Corcoran.

On the second and fourth Thursday afternoons of the winter months the officers' wives at Port Bliss will be at home to their friends at the home of Mrs. Alfred C. Sharpe, quarters No. 15, from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Pictures With a Purpose

The ennobling effect of a good picture is really extraordinary. The trouble in most cases in the selection of pictures is that they are bought at random, from a poorly selected stock, without any definite idea as to the place they are to occupy in the home.

A Special Display and Sale of Framed Pictures

From our immense collection of framed subjects, we have selected a series of framed pictures relating to musical subjects. This range is unusually extensive and includes copies of some of the world's masters.

If you are interested in "pictures with a purpose" be sure and see this special display.

The window display of these pictures is well worth seeing.
